

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

The following descriptive information will assist you in completing your application.

1. Financial Need. Consideration will be given to qualified applicants who, in addition to outstanding academic achievement and leadership skills, demonstrate financial need. Applicants should provide a copy of the most recent Student Aid Report (SAR), which indicates your Estimated Family Contribution (EFC). If you have received Pell grants, please attach copies of your award documents. If you cannot provide these documents, please state the reason why on a separate sheet of paper headed "Financial Aid Statement".
2. Undergraduate Education/Course Work and Grades. Emphasis will be placed on the academic rigor of undergraduate course work taken in six undergraduate subject areas: 1) English; 2) Mathematics/Quantitative Courses; 3) Sciences; 4) Economics/Business or Management; 5) Government/Political Science; and 6) Foreign Language Studies.
Emphasis is on performance in undergraduate course work and program of study.
Graduate Education. List all graduate schools to which you have applied.
3. College or Community Honors and Awards. Please list all honors and awards received during your undergraduate education.
4. Extracurricular/Community/Volunteer and Leadership Activities. List the following: 1) Participation in extracurricular/community/volunteer activities that relate to social causes and issues; and 2) leadership roles in those activities, such as creating a program within your community or your college/university and/or serving as president, leader, and/or spokesperson of such programs, organizations or activities.
5. Personal Statement (maximum: two typed, double-spaced pages; 12-point type font; one-inch margins on all sides. NO EXCEPTIONS TO THESE GUIDELINES.) Your personal statement is very important. It should be clearly written and should help the reader to learn about your unique personal experiences and your background, interests and career goals. In writing your personal statement, you should address ALL of the following:
 - Any disadvantages or obstacles you had to overcome to obtain your education (such as low-income background; single-parent household; need to finance your own education by working full or part time; low GPA in high school; etc.).
 - Your cultural sensitivity (illustrated by interest in foreign language; exposure to other cultures; volunteer or paid work experiences with people of various cultures or socioeconomic groups; tutoring or teaching experience; etc.).
 - Your diverse interests and background (demonstrated by such activities as living, traveling, studying or performing volunteer work outside the United States; internships with international organizations, Congress, or the Federal government; work with the Peace Corps or AmeriCorps, etc.)
 - Your interest, motivation and commitment to a career in international relations and/or public service; and/or serving the public in a domestic or international environment (interest in working within government, Foreign or Civil Service, Congress, the United Nations, the World Bank, the Organization of American States, etc.).
6. Two Letters of Recommendation. One letter should be from a community leader who knows you. One letter should be from a university or faculty member who knows you. Letters of recommendation must be MAILED DIRECTLY to Dr. Richard Hope at the address below.
